Circular C. 1935—Gl. of 1919-20, dated 22*nd December* 1919.

Instances of loss of records during transmission by post from one office to another are frequently coming to the notice of the undersigned. The forwarding offices are unable to furnish any evidence of the actual despatch of the papers in such cases beyond an entry in their tappal books and this invariably gives a handle to the office to which the communications are reported to have been sent to deny the actual receipt of the records. The arrangement now obtaining is thus clearly defective. In future the instructions given below should be strictly followed in all the Revenue offices :—

(i) Original records of importance should, as a rule, be sent by registered post.

(ii) In comparatively less important cases or when it is too late in the day for registration and it is not desirable to delay the despatch of the communications till the next day, a certificate of posting should be obtained and filed carefully.

(iii) In cases where owing to urgency records have to be forwarded on postal holidays when neither the covers or packets can be registered nor certificate of posting can be had, the records should be sent by ordinary post. But on the same day the Chief Ministerial Officer of the forwarding office should separately send an invoice of the papers so despatched to the Chief Ministerial Officer of the receiving office. The latter should in such cases invariably return the invoice to the forwarding office acknowledging the receipt of the papers immediately after they are received. If they are not received within a reasonable time, the fact should be brought to the notice of his official superior. Similarly if the acknowledgment is not received within a reasonable time by the forwarding office, the fact should be reported to the Head of the Office by the Chief Ministerial official.

No. D2. Dis. 1431—Gl. 19-20, dated 22—24*th December* 1919.
